

Thomas Tupper

Good Morning I'm Thomas Tupper. Like the esteemed men present here today I traveled from Saugus to settle the town now known as Sandwich. I arrived from England aboard the good ship Abigail. I married my wife Catherine in the township of Ipswich. I built my house of wood in a simple saltbox design. As there was no settled minister I conducted the religious services at the meeting house. I was described by my peers and town folk as being a godly man, quarrelsome, and steadfast in my decisions even when faced with a dissenting opinion.
